About Lord's Grace Church

Lord's Grace Church (LGC) is a non-denominational evangelical Christ-centred community that started in 1981 as an ethnic Chinese church with lay ministry. We have grown into three congregations with Cantonese, English, and Mandarin services. The Cantonese congregation of about 150-200 people emphasizes worship, prayer, discipleship training and fellowship. We are committed to loving God and serving one another and our neighbours at Kitsilano. Please visit the Lord's Grace Church website www.lordsgrace.ca to learn more about us.

Duties and Responsibilities

The Associate Pastor is to work under the supervision of the Cantonese Pastor/Lead Pastor to provide leadership for the ongoing development and implementation of Student, Young Career and Family Ministry (relevant groups aged 18-45) in the Cantonese Congregation. In working with the lay leaders, the Associate Pastor will perform regular pastoral duties, with special focus on establishing a new Cantonese student ministry in the LGC.

The position is to serve the needs of the LGC Cantonese Congregation as well as the wider church, and is accountable to the Deacons Board.
